

Stunning Apartment For Sale In The Upper East Side, New York

If you love New York City like we do then this stunning apartment on the Upper East Side of the city, will blow you away. It is located in a quiet area, not far from the Metropolitan Art Museum and within walking distance to all amenities such as museums, restaurants, shops, some of the city's top schools and Central Park. The property boasts 3 good sized bedrooms with built-in wardrobe space, 2 bathrooms, a fully fitted and functional kitchen with a breakfast nook, an open-plan living/dining room, a private luminous and beautiful outdoor living space, central heating, air conditioning, hardwood flooring through-out and storage space. This apartment is in a boutique 1920's building which has a part-time doorman. It is everything you dream about living in New York City. The property is a great home or investment for those that want to have pied-a-terre in the city. Viewing is an absolute must! Call us for more details on this property.